President's Message

Our April showers seem to have come in May but everything is growing and greening up! And that means it is time for us to do some growing too!

I've been doing some brain storming with Jeanne Endrikat about how we can increase our participation in the annual quilt show. One of the things that we've discussed is to have some in-house challenges between now and the next show. The guidelines will be a little bit simpler than for the Hampton Show Challenge Quilts but they will allow us to be creative, have some fun and get some fun items into the quilt show. Two ideas that we've discussed are a quilted bag and a quilted jacket challenge. The great thing is that we aren't asking you to come up with original patterns, just creative execution! Stay tuned, we will be talking about this more!

The 2016 Quilt Show is in the bag. Although there was a significant drop in admissions again this year, we covered all expenses of the show. We will receive a check for $35 from Cabin Branch. Remember that we already have our Silent Auction money of over $2500 and Boutique money of over $1200. The show itself is planned on a breakeven basis. Covering expenses was the planned goal from vendors and show admissions.

Don't forget that your community service bag quilts are due at the June meeting and I will have something new for you to work on then!

My challenge for May is for you to bring a friend to our general meeting. Let's see if we can pack the house! Looking forward to seeing everyone,

2016 Boutique Summary

Now that the dust has settled and Quilt Show 2016 is over, I would like to take a moment to thank each and every one of the guild members for all the donations, help in sewing items and working in the Boutique. We had a successful year and that was only possible through a combined effort. I had a great committee, because I certainly did not do this on my own, they were Paula Cacciatore, Vicky Masturzo, and Ces Vanoster. My thanks, also, to Kathie Latimer for hosting the Boutique workshops in her home and the guidance at the show itself. The final total after the items were sold at the last guild meeting is $1,643.58! Great job, everyone!

Elaine Stuckey

2016 Silent Auction Summary

Congratulations ladies, we have collected $2,482 thus far from the silent auction. I am still waiting on three people to pick up their items which would be another $105 for a total of $2,587!!!! Can you believe it?!? I can't thank everyone enough for their generosity this year. We received some really generous donations from the guild members, so much time was given by the members to help put the baskets together, set up the tables and then set them up again, volunteering at the tables and finally the crazy and fun part of delivering the items to the people who won their bids.

Thank you, thank you, thank you for all your help!! This is "free" money for the guild to use. Start looking around your house and thinking up items for next year - it is NEVER too early to start getting ready for the 2017 Quilt Show. A special shout out to Kary Heck, thank you for storing all the items in your home and without your help I would not have been able to pull this off!

Spring 2016 In-house Retreat

This year's spring in-house retreat will be at the Hampton Inn located at 7295 Williamson Blvd, Manassas, Virginia from Friday May 13th – Sunday May 15th.

The room will be open from 8am - 5pm each day and we can leave our machines and sewing supplies overnight. The room will be securely locked at 5pm or when the last participant leaves. It will be a little tight but the lighting and power access is great! There will be coffee in the lobby and ice water in the sewing room. They do have a nice "hot breakfast" if you are interested at a cost of $6.95 a day. Please pay the hotel directly if interested.

The SHQG board reviewed the Policy and Procedures which currently states "All workshops and retreats must be self-supporting with no profit or debits." Therefore, the cost for the 2016 Spring In-house retreat is $6.00 per day payable to the Stone House Quilters Guild or SHQG.

If you are interested in attending, please contact Nancy Thyson.

2016 Raffle Quilt

The 2016 Raffle Quilt was won by Toni Mayo, a former member of the Stone House Guild. From what I was told Toni was very excited to be the one winning the quilt. I'm sure Rae can provide more information about the call at the May guild meeting. For those of you that know Toni you probably know how the call went. Congratulations Toni we are thrilled that this beautiful quilt is getting a good home!

Programs and Workshops

May 9th, Erin Underwood. Erin will show us a fun and inspiring collection of quilts including the good, the bad and the “if I only knew better” Quilts. As a quilt-a-holic who plans to never recover, she thrives on absorbing all she can about quilting and sharing techniques and tricks with others.

June 13th, Paula Harr. Paula has over 20 years’ experience in making T-shirt quilts and she will talk to us about using our favorite T-shirts to make a quilt. She will have a handout to take home.

July 11th, Mary Koval. After more than thirty years, Mary Koval has emerged as a leading expert in the field of American Quilts and Antique fabric. She has been instrumental in the formation of private collections and handles hundreds of exceptional quilts. As a fabric designer, Mary has designed antique reproduction fabric for Timeless Treasure, Free Spirit, Blank Quilting. She presently designs for Windham Fabrics. Mary will tell us how she got started in quilting but more importantly, how she got into designing fabric.

July 26, Town & County Jacket Workshop. Refer to the “MorninGlory Designs Town and County Jacket Workshop” article below for more information. Please email Nancy Thyson if interested in taking this workshop. Limited to 8 participants.

August 8th, Beth Flores. Beth will talk to us about the different types of batting and how each one makes a difference in quilting.

September 12th, Nancy Bills. Nancy will provide a trunk show and talk about her method of making quilt blocks such as the Pineapple, Log Cabin, Off-center Log Cabin, Sunburst Star, and Geese in the Cabin (to name a few) with just squares and strips of fabric or scraps.

October 10th, Frederick Nunley. Frederick is a member of the Modern Quilt Guild and he will be presenting a trunk show of his modern quilts. His quilts are generally his original designs and he hand quilts using long stitch hand quilting and pearl cotton. He rarely uses fabric in traditional ways, often putting scraps together to make “new” fabric before cutting his blocks.

ARTS ALIVE! 2016 Events

Below is a list of Prince William Arts Council events for 2016. Each of these events gives the Stone House Quilt Guild opportunities to give demonstrations, promote quilting, and to sell raffle quilt tickets to the Prince William County community.

- Friday, May 6th, 6:00 – 9:00 PM: We will cram as much art as possible into every nook and cranny of Old Town Manassas at the “Spring Gallery Walk Sponsored by Historic Manassas, Inc. and the Prince William County Arts Council”. In addition to utilizing spaces such as Harris Pavilion and the grounds of the Manassas Museum, we will close the area to vehicle traffic as the various merchants of Historic Manassas host visual and performing artists in their stores and on the streets.
- Saturday, May 21st, 11:00 – 4:00: The arts come alive at Rippon Lodge! Music, art and dance are an important part of our history and culture. Enjoy live performances, living history demonstrations, local artist exhibits, learn about art, music and dance from the 18th century, and participate in hands-on activities

- Saturday, June 18th, 4:00 – 8:00 PM: Poetry, music, visual art, food, and more will be featured at the “Arts Council Summerfest at Tacketts Mill”. Among other artsy offerings, we will crown the new Prince William County Poet Laureate.

If you are interested in volunteering for any of these events to work an hour or two promoting quilting, giving a demonstration, selling raffle tickets or all three, please contact me, Sandy O’Dea.

July 16th - MorninGlory Designs Town and County Jacket Workshop

We are planning a Town and County Jacket workshop on July 16, 2016 at Daffodil Quilts in Nokesville, Virginia. The class is limited to 8 participants. Each participant is required to purchase a pattern, cost is $10.00. There will be no classroom cost (thank you Jane)!!! The pattern comes in two size groups: Extra small – Extra Large and 1X – 5X. It's packaged as two different patterns with different stock numbers so please provide the pattern needed when signing up.

The Town & Country Jacket© by MorninGlory Designs ® is so versatile you'll want to make several of them to wear for dress and play. The quilt-as-you-go construction method and slimming lines will appeal to those with intermediate sewing skills and like to get a project done as quickly as possible. Students will learn how to sew on a separating zipper. Make this stylish 24-inch long jacket out of the many fabulous new fabrics and colors for the season.

Class Supply List: Students should come to class with the pattern traced and cut out in the appropriate size, and the batting (or can use washed flannel or muslin should you elect to make a lighter jacket) and lining cut out as well. Bring fabric strips pre-cut to width but not to length and labeled.

- ◆ Straight pins
- ◆ Rotary cutter and ruler
- ◆ Marking pen or pencil
- ◆ Pattern – Town & Country Jacket
- ◆ Coordinating thread

Library Quilts

Linda Harris's quilt will be displayed at the Manassas Library on Mathis Avenue during the month of May.

Please consider signing up to continue this lovely tradition! Display quilts should be no bigger than 45' x 45" (the length can be couple inches longer).

Betty Geisler

UFO Update

As of the April Guild Meeting we had eight completed UFOs. Since we didn't have a drawing in March, we had two drawings for those members who had completed projects. The lucky winners were Connie Robison and Beth Flores.

We still have a lot of UFOs to go so we need to keep on working.

Janet Scott

Raffle Quilt

The 2017 Raffle Quilt is finished and it is GORGEOUS!! Julie Brown (former Stone House member) custom quilted it for us and then donated her services. The first outing for the quilt was an Arts Alive event in Woodbridge on April 30th. Unfortunately, poor weather and poor advertising for the event meant that the effort was not as successful as hoped. Thanks to Sandy O'Dea and Kary Heck for sitting with the quilt in Woodbridge!

Our charity for 2017 is the Virginia Division of the Southern States Police Benevolent Association. Within the Police Benevolent Association, our donation with actually go to the Police Benevolent Foundation, their charitable arm. The Police Benevolent Association provides assistance to the families of officers killed or injured in the line of duty, support for PTSD and suicide prevention, scholarships for the children of officers killed in the line of duty and legal assistance to officers accused of crimes in the performance of their duties. Elaine Stuckey and Nancy Thyson are already at work on the 2018 Raffle Quilt.

Mid-Atlantic Challenge 2017

Theme: “Colors”

Size: 22” X 28” Portrait orientation

Indicate You Will Be Participating by: December 2016

Database Registration: January 10, 2017

Turn in: February 2017

For the challenge for 2017 you must pick a color and use only that color and black and/or white – no gray... unless that is the color you choose. However – you are not limited to a single color in the palette. You may use all shades, tints and variations of your color. For example – if you choose green you can mix everything from pale green to olive to Kelly to hunter. If you go for red, you can use everything from pastel pink to harlot scarlet. You can use solids, tone on tone prints or prints with black and white. You may NOT use any print that contains colors other than your chosen one. For example, if blue is your color, you can use batiks in all shades of blue, but NOT if there are spots of purple. Embellishments are fine, but must also be in your color palette.

For more information, check the guild website or contact Liz Sampson.
