Community Service

More kits are coming, and thank you to everyone who has been taking them. If the pattern does not make sense or you do not have enough material feel free to email/call/text me. I am still looking into having some community sew in days. If anyone has a space (church, community room, etc.) that they know about, please let me know. Also a number of people have been leaving quilts by my chair at the guild meetings, which is totally fine, but could you then email/text me to let me know that you did so? I am trying to keep track for an end of year "thing." Thank you all so much!

The guild has been donating Community Service Quilts to the following charities for over 15 years:

- Walter Reed National Military Medical Center (Quilt sizes: 50" x 60" and 72" x 90") - Walter Reed is one of the nation's largest and most renowned military medical centers. WRNMMC serves military families and our nation's active duty, returning war heroes, veterans and our Nation's leaders. Donated quilts are given to servicemen/women who have been injured in combat. Smaller quilts are provided to servicemen/women or used as gifts for the patients to purchase for their loved ones.
- CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) (Any size quilt) – These quilts are made from colorful fabrics and are presented to children for comfort allowing them to have something to call their own. The remainder are distributed to children who have been adopted within the last year at the November National Adoption Day Ceremony at the Prince William Court House in Manassas, Virginia.

- Manassas and Gainesville Health and Rehabilitation Centers (Quilt sizes: 36" x 39") – Provides comprehensive rehabilitation, long-term and respite care services, including physical, occupational and speech therapy, audiology, cardiac and pulmonary rehabilitation. Laps quilts are provided to patients for use due to their rehabilitation stays or used as prizes for Bingo, etc.

July's Meeting Minutes

STONE HOUSE QUILTER'S GUILD MEETING

July 10, 2017

The meeting was called to order by the president, Patrisha Wells, at 7:00 p.m.

Patrisha asked if everyone had picked up a ballot for the vote tonight as they signed in and had ballots passed out to anyone who did not have one. We would vote tonight on changes to the By-Laws. Patrisha asked everyone to correct their ballot. On the ballot regarding membership, in the first line the word "Life" appeared twice and it was corrected to "Associate".

Patrisha asked if anyone wished to volunteer to chair the nominating committee for 2018. Donna McDonald and Nancy Thyson volunteered for the nominating committee. Offices will need to be filled next year for vice president, secretary, membership (Karen Williams has volunteered for membership), the treasurer will continue to serve next year.

Patrisha said she is working on having a microphone soon.

Patrisha announced that tonight's program speaker became suddenly ill and could not come. Therefore, tonight we would look at some of the boutique projects presented by Elaine Stuckey.

SUNSHINE and SHADOWS – Rae Brady

No gifts were brought in tonight for the Birthday Raffle.

Rae announced that there are plenty of "give aways" on the table tonight that she does not want to take home.

Rae talked about an idea for a mat for setting your sewing machine on with pockets.

There is still fabric that will be brought in from Karen Roberson that will be brought in later.

IN-HOUSE RETREAT – Nancy Thyson

Nancy Thyson made a portable ironing table from a TV table. She asked guild members to donate TV trays to make some of these ironing tables for the boutique. The tables are handy to have at a retreat.

Nancy asked anyone needing special accommodations or dietary arrangements for Capon Spring should let her know so that information can be given to Capon Springs. If any husbands would like to ride up and play golf and come back let Nancy know that too.

BOUTIQUE WORK SHOP – Elaine Stuckey

Examples presented for the work shop and kits available tonight:

- Block Carriers
- Toilet paper covers
- Candle mat
- Pot Holders
- Carrots that need to be finished
- Cell phone holder
- Needle case
- Garbage bags for your car
- Hand embroidery ... traveling Needle case

Elaine would like any kits done back by July 29 when they do the workshop.

A sign-up sheet was available and everyone asked to bring food to share to the work shop.

In September we there will be an Arts Alive event and we want to have a booth and table runners, pot holders, candle mats, and toilet paper holders by September guild meeting. She will need people to sell raffle tickets that day.

Kathie Latimer has long strands of beads to put around tops of bags to keep things in. She has some jewelry to sell that could go in these bags, a tape measure and beautiful pin cushions.

Food wise, Kathie asked that people call and let her know what they are bringing. Kathie asked everyone to sign-up tonight. She has four extra machines if anyone needs one.

Patrisha Wells offered to bring in small zippers for anyone interested in making small bags.

Kathie asked the guild to give her other ideas for making something small and cute for the boutique.

MEMBERSHIP – Elaine Stuckey

We have 83 members and a quorum to vote. The vote will be after the break.

We had five visitors - Cindy Moore, Sue Hatcher, Joyce Jarrett, Lyn Ryan and Diane Foote.

Inspiration for Quilt Show Boutique and Auction Items

A tidbit to know. If you are a member of Craftsy, there are numerous free patterns on their quilting site. When I went on, there were 42 pages of things! Many would be suitable to make for the Silent Auction or the Boutique. Give it a try if you've never looked. I was so amazed!

Jeanne Endrikat

2018 Quilt Show Boutique

For the Boutique, I would like to ask people to make table runners. Also, Kathie Latimer, Susan Graves and Elaine Stuckey spent a day making kits for wool and/or felt candle mats. The embroidery floss, fabrics, pattern and beads (if needed) are all in the kit. We would like these kits to go home from the August meeting and come back to the September meeting. Carrie Karki and Harriette Siler will be taking the tablerunners and candle mats to Arts Alive on September 17th at the Hylton Center to sell. Proceeds to go to the Boutique income.

I would also like to challenge the guild members to do a UFO purge. Any UFOs that you have, that you know you will never finish, or you just changed your mind about the project, we would like to sell at the Boutique. Most of the money made from the Boutique at the 2017 Quilt Show was from table runners and UFOs from members.

Carrie Karki

2018 Quilt Show Auction

It's that time again! Preparation for the Quilt Show Silent Auction!

We are accepting donations now! Including large items. We are planning to auction items using the same style as last year and having some items using the traditional silent auction method. We need quilts, fabric, quilting supplies, etc. We will take cross-stitch, crochet, and knitted items as well. We need containers – baskets, plastic boxes, sewing baskets, tubs – to hold each bundle for the auction. We also need containers to put “tickets” in. If you need us to come pick the items up from your house, we will be glad to do that.

We will focus our collections each month around a theme; however, we will accept any items at any time. The theme for the August meeting is: Summer. When you think of summer what comes to mind? Beach, Disney, Family? So, bring in fabrics/quilts/squares/kits that reflect your interpretation of Summer. Note: There will be a prize for the item that best reflects the theme.

Have suggestions? We are open to ideas.

Brenda Baughman and Revonda Wack

Small Quilts

Do you have too many small quilts that you don't use? Do you have a large block that could be made into a small quilt? Do you have scraps left over from a project that could be made into a small quilt? If you answered yes to one or more of these questions, consider donating your small quilt to the Virginia Quilt Museum. They use them to auction off to support the museum or sell them in their store. There is a donor form on their web site so you will get credit for giving it. I will be happy to take it down for you when I go, and if you have any questions, I will be glad to answer them.

Virginia Quilt Museum Update

Current Exhibits (May 30 - Aug 26, 2017)

"World War I Quilts"

Curated by Sue Reich

By the turn to the 20th century, quilting was blending old styles with the fresh new ideas of business-minded quilt designers and pattern makers. But in 1917, America's soldiers went to serve on battlefronts in Europe and much of our nation's quilting became centered on the humanitarian efforts to provide for our soldiers and the Red Cross. The Red Cross quilt is the hallmark quilt of World War I. Its pattern was published by Modern Priscilla Magazine in December 1917, and combined quilting with fundraising for the Red Cross war relief efforts. Then in 1918, the influenza pandemic brought more hardship and death to America and the world. To help curb the advance of the flu, our government put a ban on joining together in groups, bringing quilting bees and Red Cross work to a virtual halt. Ironically, the flu also contributed to bringing the war to an end.

Our grandfathers and great grandfathers fought on the battlefields. Many quilts exhibited in this collection give a glimpse into the struggles of World War I and of the benevolent contribution of our grandmothers and great grandmothers on the homefront.

"Something Old is New Again: Needlework of the 20th and 21st Centuries" by the Shenandoah Valley Chapter of the American Needlepoint Guild

Curated by Gretchen Janesak and Laurie Kelly

The study of needlework objects, which have historically served both decorative and functional purposes, provides insight into our history and the everyday lives led by our forebears. English and American schoolgirl samplers are familiar examples of decorative needlework that were prominently displayed in family parlors. But at the same time, the lines of alphabet on samplers offered practice of the skill used to embroider initials on household linens to identify the owner. Samplers recorded family events like births, deaths, and marriages. Pictorial motifs portrayed the spirit and economic or social status of the communities of embroiderers who worked them. Utilitarian purposes of needlework also extended to quilted fabrics that provided warmth and cushioning (under suits of armor); to embroidered bed curtains and valances for drafty bedchambers; and to needlepoint seat cushions providing the only comfort on hand-hewn wood furniture.

Items in this exhibit include family heirlooms, but the majority is needlework by Chapter members whose designs are consistent with the portrayed time frame. These contemporary works of art are the family heirlooms of the generations to follow.

"Windchimes" by the Fiber Artists @ Loose Ends

Organized in 2005, the Fiber Artists @ Loose Ends encourages its members to explore new ideas and techniques by inspiring and nurturing creativity. Members express their passion for the textile medium by sharing their work in private and public venues. The ten members created this eight-part installation, featuring the four seasons and the four elements of Fire, Water, Air, and Earth. The eight pieces reflect each artist's unique style and individuality within parameters set by the group. Notice techniques that range from traditional quilting designs to painting on silk to fused fibers that have been stitched and then melted.

Pearls of Wisdom

(Published in Jul 2017 American Quilter by Kimberly Einmo)

Quilting philosophy 101

Everyone was once a beginner.

Finished is better than perfect.

Start small, not with a king size quilt.

It's a hobby, not life or death.

Finish a UFO occasionally.

Make the quilt you feel passionate about right now even if it is not the one you are currently working on.

Don't be afraid to abandon a project you no longer enjoy working on. Let go and move on.

You don't have to create Mount Olympus with every quilt.

This is not your last quilt.
